May Elective— Finding Peace: A Christian Perspective on Anxiety

Anxiety can be overwhelming, but it's often a signal—not the core problem. In this class, we'll explore what anxiety really is, how it shows up in everyday life as well as clinical struggles like panic, OCD, trauma, and more—and how our modern, overloaded lives can make it worse. We'll also talk about the power of emotional honesty, the role of community, and how the gospel offers us real peace, not just coping. Come learn practical tools, gain insight, and experience grace-filled encouragement. Led by Jonathan Kittel, LPC/S, LMFT/S, this class will meet in the Learning Commons May 3, 10, 17, and 24 at 9:45am.

Giving Is An Act of Worship

As we give, we ascribe worth to our God (Ps. 96:8), and it puts money in its proper place in our hearts (Matthew 6:21). Your giving to supports Gospel ministry on this campus, in our community, and among our global partners. Give online, via our app, or in the giving boxes, “As you feel led, for God loves a cheerful giver.” (2 Cor. 9:7)
